GENESIS

The Beginning of Creation

1 In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth.² The earth was without form and void, and darkness was over the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God was hovering over the face of the waters.

The Six Days of Creation

³And God said, "Let there be light," and there was light.⁴And God saw that the light was good. And God separated the light from the darkness.⁵God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, the first day.

⁶And God said, "Let there be an expanse in the midst of the waters, and let it separate day and over the night, and to separate the light from the darkness. And God saw that it was good.⁸And there was evening and there was morning, the fourth day.

⁹And God said, "Let the waters swarm with swarms of living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth across the expanse of the heavens."¹⁰So God created the great sea creatures and every living creature that moves, with which the waters swarm, according to their kinds, and every winged bird according to its kind. And God saw that it was good.¹¹And God blessed them, saying, "Be fruitful and multiply and fill the waters in the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth."¹²And
